

Effective 5/12/2015

16-10a-302 General powers.

Unless its articles of incorporation provide otherwise, and except as restricted by the Utah Constitution, every corporation has perpetual duration and succession in its corporate name and has the same powers as an individual to do all things necessary or convenient to carry out its permitted and lawful purposes, activities, and affairs, including without limitation the power:

- (1) to sue and be sued, complain and defend in the corporation's corporate name;
- (2) to have a corporate seal, which may be altered at will, and to use the corporate seal, or a facsimile of the corporate seal, by impressing or affixing the corporate seal or in any other manner reproducing the corporate seal;
- (3) to make and amend bylaws, not inconsistent with the corporation's articles of incorporation or with the laws of this state, for managing the business and regulating the affairs of the corporation;
- (4) to purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, and own, hold, improve, use, and otherwise deal with, real or personal property, or any legal or equitable interest in property, wherever located;
- (5) to sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of the corporation's property and assets;
- (6) to purchase, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, and deal in and with shares or other interests in, or obligations of, any other entity;
- (7) to make contracts and guarantees, incur liabilities, borrow money, issue the corporation's notes, bonds, and other obligations that may or may not be convertible into or include the option to purchase other securities of the corporation, and secure any of the corporation's obligations by mortgage or pledge of any of the corporation's property, assets, franchises, or income;
- (8) to lend money, invest and reinvest the corporation's funds, and receive and hold real and personal property as security for repayment;
- (9) to be a promoter, partner, member, associate, or manager of any partnership, joint venture, trust, or other entity;
- (10) to conduct the corporation's business and activities, locate offices, and exercise the powers granted by this chapter within or without this state;
- (11) to elect directors and appoint officers, employees, and agents of the corporation, define their duties, fix their compensation, and lend them money and credit;
- (12) to pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit sharing plans, share bonus plans, share option plans, and benefit or incentive plans for any or all of the corporation's current or former directors, officers, employees, and agents;
- (13) to operate, and to make donations, for the public welfare or for charitable, religious, scientific, or educational purposes;
- (14) to transact any lawful business that will aid governmental policy;
- (15) to make payments or donations, or do any other act, not inconsistent with law, that furthers the business and affairs of the corporation; and
- (16) to establish rules governing the conduct of the business and affairs of the corporation in the event of an emergency.
